Language:
English

Area:
English for Teachers / Languages / Language Pratice

Level:
Basic to Intermediate English language skills

Course Description

This English course is designed for participants who wish to develop basic to intermediate English language skills, with a special focus on speaking fluency, vocabulary, and pronunciation. It is also suitable for English teachers who want to explore and apply innovative techniques in their classrooms.
Participants will enhance and expand their English knowledge in key aspects of the language, using English as a practical means of communication in both classroom and everyday contexts.
Additionally, the course aims to update and deepen understanding of English teaching methodologies, as well as strengthen participants' practical teaching skills and classroom techniques.
Focusing on hands-on classroom activities and creative resources, the course provides a refreshing variety of English teaching strategies that can be directly implemented in real learning environments.
This English course seeks to offer educators opportunities to revitalize and strengthen their English language competence (beginner to intermediate level) and to reinforce their confidence in using and speaking English.
By the end of the course, participants will become more knowledgeable, confident, and fluent English users, ready to communicate effectively and teach with renewed enthusiasm.

Learning Outcomes

- Enhance and refresh linguistic skills;
- Enrich oral communication skills;
- Introduce creative ideas to make classes livelier and more interactive;
- Implement practical activities for teaching challenging classes;
