Course description

Effective communication is at the heart of every successful school. Whether managing a classroom, working in multicultural teams, engaging with students' families or collaborating in Erasmus+ projects, educators need communication skills that promote trust, understanding and positive relationships.

This course helps teachers and other education professionals strengthen their interpersonal skills and improve communication with students, colleagues, parents and international partners. Participants will develop strategies for active listening, assertiveness, empathy, emotional awareness, conflict prevention, constructive feedback and collaborative problem-solving.

Through communication exercises, group discussions and realistic school scenarios, participants will practise handling everyday interactions and building positive professional relationships. They will reflect on their communication habits, exchange experiences with European colleagues and develop a Personal Communication & Relationship Plan with strategies they can apply in their own educational settings.

05 / LEARNING APPROACH & METHODOLOGY

Learning Together Methodology

Learning Together courses combine guided input supported by presentations and multimedia resources with practical experimentation, creative workshops, case-based learning and hands-on tools. Participants connect the learning to their own professional situations and progressively develop an applied outcome, which may take the form of a presentation, project, session plan, action idea, reflection or another relevant output.

Peer / trainer feedback supports refinement throughout the process, while European exchange encourages participants to compare practices, perspectives and approaches across different educational contexts.

Methods applied in this programme

Communication Self-Assessment & Active Listening

Participants assess their communication styles and practise active listening, non-verbal awareness and empathy through guided exercises.

Roleplay & Educational Case Studies

Realistic school scenarios help participants practise assertiveness, conflict prevention, constructive feedback and communication with colleagues and families.

Personal Communication & Relationship Planning

Participants identify communication strengths and improvement priorities, then develop practical strategies for building positive professional relationships.

Collaborative learning, peer exchange and reflection

Participants work with European colleagues, compare professional contexts, exchange approaches and reflect on how the learning can be transferred to their own institutions.

Illustrative example: Developing a Personal Communication and Relationship Improvement Plan

Imagine a teacher seeking to strengthen relationships with students, colleagues and families by improving everyday communication practices. Through self-assessment, the teacher could identify recurring challenges, explore active listening and assertiveness techniques, and develop more constructive ways of giving feedback and managing difficult conversations. By combining practical communication strategies with clear personal objectives, the teacher could create a realistic improvement plan that promotes trust, mutual understanding and positive relationships within the school community.

An adaptable learning experience

Learning Together courses are delivered by trainers with relevant professional & pedagogical experience, who are fluent English speakers. The trainer may vary by edition, adapting the activities to the group's professional context and learning goals.
