Course description

Mental health plays an important role in how learners feel, interact, participate and develop within educational environments. Schools can contribute to positive mental health by fostering supportive relationships, reducing stigma and creating inclusive learning environments where students feel understood and valued. For educators, recognising signs of emotional distress and knowing how to respond appropriately are essential professional competences.

This practical course strengthens mental health awareness and supportive educational practices through real-life scenarios, guided discussions and interactive activities. Participants will examine factors that influence learner wellbeing, recognise possible signs of distress and practise empathetic communication. They will also develop strategies for promoting social-emotional learning, resilience and positive school relationships, while understanding the importance of safeguarding, professional boundaries and appropriate referral procedures.

Through practical workshops, case studies and exchange with European colleagues, participants will develop a realistic School Mental Health and Wellbeing Action Plan. The course emphasises prevention, early recognition, cooperation with families and specialist services, and practical approaches that can be adapted to participants' own educational institutions.

05 / LEARNING APPROACH & METHODOLOGY

Learning Together Methodology

Learning Together courses combine guided input supported by presentations and multimedia resources with practical experimentation, creative workshops, case-based learning and hands-on tools. Participants connect the learning to their own professional situations and progressively develop an applied outcome, which may take the form of a presentation, project, session plan, action idea, reflection or another relevant output.

Peer / trainer feedback supports refinement throughout the process, while European exchange encourages participants to compare practices, perspectives and approaches across different educational contexts.

Methods applied in this programme

Mental Health Literacy & Case Analysis

Participants analyse mental health concepts, stigma, protective factors and realistic school situations, learning to recognise concerns without making clinical assumptions.

Supportive Communication & Scenario Practice

Guided roleplay and practical scenarios help participants strengthen empathetic listening, respond to learner distress and recognise when safeguarding or specialist support is required.

Whole-School Mapping & Action Planning

Participants assess existing school support systems, identify relevant resources and referral pathways, and develop a practical mental health and wellbeing action plan.

Collaborative learning, peer exchange and reflection

Participants work with European colleagues, compare professional contexts, exchange approaches and reflect on how the learning can be transferred to their own institutions.

> Illustrative example: Responding to a Learner's Wellbeing Concerns
> Imagine a teacher noticing changes in a learner's participation and behaviour. Participants examine the observable concerns, practise a supportive conversation, identify appropriate school support procedures and consider how to follow up while respecting professional boundaries, confidentiality and safeguarding responsibilities.

An adaptable learning experience

Learning Together courses are delivered by trainers with relevant professional & pedagogical experience, who are fluent English speakers. The trainer may vary by edition, adapting the activities to the group's professional context and learning goals.
