COURSE DESCRIPTION

In a globalised and multicultural Europe, strong English communication skills are essential for professional success, international networking, and effective classroom teaching.

Advanced English Training (B2 to C1) is designed for educators, trainers, and professionals who already have a solid intermediate level of English (B2) and want to move towards advanced fluency (C1).

The course focuses on enhancing fluency, accuracy, and confidence in speaking, writing, and professional communication, including project communication, academic discussions, public speaking and cross-cultural exchanges.

Through immersive, practice-oriented sessions, participants will polish their language, expand academic and professional vocabulary, improve pronunciation and intonation and develop the skills to communicate naturally, persuasively, and diplomatically in an international environment.
